LOYALTY: AN IMPORTANT FAMILY VALUE

by Sembradores de Paz

It is within our families where we learn the most important things in life. We learn to crawl then we learn to walk, we mumble our first words in order to talk. An important part in the learning process is the act of mimicking or to imitate the behavior of the place we are brought up in. Kids follow and imitate their parents, their siblings and other family members. Family is the underlying base where human character is developed.

GOD IS LOYAL

by Sembradores de Paz

God gives us evidence of loyalty in the next passage: “Know therefore that the Lord your God is God, the faithful God who maintains covenant loyalty with those who love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations” (Deuteronomy 7:9). We have the promise that even “if we are faithless, he will remain faithful, for he cannot disown himself” (2 Timothy 2:13).

God invites you to be loyal to towards one another. In the scriptures, Paul speaks of his “loyal companion” in Philippians 4:3. Just like Paul is loyal to his companion, we should all be loyal to God our Lord and thus to each and every one of our brothers and sisters on this beautiful planet of ours.

Rejoice for God has promised to be with us till the end of days.”... and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” (Mathew 28: 16-20)

LOYALTY IS MY LIFESTYLE

by Sembradores de Paz

Loyalty isn't a thing to carry around in a backpack when you leave your house. It isn't something you just buy at any store either.

Nor a word to be used as a slogan for a publicity campaign. Loyalty is more than that. It is a Lifestyle.

Loyalty is a way of leaving. It should permeate every aspect of your life, family, work, friendship and more importantly your relationship with God.

Loyalty is a way of leaving.

Lord, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep these desires and thoughts in the hearts of your people forever, and keep their hearts loyal to you. (1 Chronicles 29: 18)

LOYALTY VS SELFISHNESS

by Sembradores de Paz

There is a great difference between a loyal person and one who isn't. Loyalty is love, commitment, caring, passion, fairness, fidelity and obedience. On the other hand, selfishness is equal to hate, carelessness, infidelity, injustice and neglect.

All in all, we will all ways have a decision to make. Who would you rather be? A loyal person or a selfish one? What type of a society would you like to be a part of? A loyal society or a selfish one like the one we are leaving in now? It's time to seek God and be loyal to Him and His teachings.

It's time to seek God and be loyal to Him and His teachings.

LOYALTY: AN IMPORTANT FAMILY VALUE

by Sembradores de Paz

It is within our families where we learn the most important things in life. We learn to crawl then we learn to walk, we mumble our first words in order to talk. An important part in the learning process is the act of mimicking or to imitate the behavior of the place we are brought up in. Kids follow and imitate their parents, their siblings and other family members. Family is the underlaying base where human character is developed.

How can we teach loyalty to our children?

1. Show your loyalty to God, read the scriptures, assist to your local church and pray.
2. Show your loyalty to your parents by never speaking wrong about them.
3. Show your loyalty to your husband or wife by treating him or her with love and respect.
4. Show your loyalty to your place of work by being honest and diligent in all you do.
5. Show your loyalty to your school and teachers, follow their lead for it will bring you knowledge and understanding.
6. Show your loyalty to our planet, don't pollute, save energy and water, recycle and don't hurt wildlife and natural areas.

And finally, show loyalty to your children, teach them about God, love them, care for them and correct them.
